

On Thu, Nov 20, 2014 at 11:32 AM, zdunek@uic.edu <zdunek@uic.edu> wrote:

Dear Don,

Thank you for the update. As advised we will change the chemical engineering program to reflect the new course numbers.

Regards,

Alan

Dr. Alan D. Zdunek
Visiting Clinical Assistant Professor and Director of Undergraduate Studies Department of Chemical Engineering
University of Illinois at Chicago
810 South Clinton Street
Chicago, Illinois 60607
email: zdunek@uic.edu
ph: 312-996-4607

On Thu, November 20, 2014 9:46 am, Donald Wink wrote:

> Ludwig:

>

> At its meeting on November 19, the LAS faculty approved substantial > changes to the chemistry program. Included within this are the courses > Chemistry 122-123 and 124-125 that will supplant our current 112 and 114 > courses in general chemistry. Although final approval through the Senate > lies in the future, the approval of the LAS faculty means we will > initiate detailed planning for the new courses to be offered beginning > in Fall, 2015.

>

> Changing your program(s) to include the new courses is now advised. As > mentioned previously, the new courses are equivalent to current courses > in the following manner:

> Chemistry 112 (5 crh) = Chemistry 122 (4 crh) + Chemistry 123 (1 crh)

> Chemistry 114 (5 crh) = Chemistry 124 (4 crh) + Chemistry 125 (1 crh)

>

> Sincerely,

> Don

>

>